

ROYAL ACADEMY OF DANCE

South East Awards 2026
Candidate Information Pack

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

This competition is designed to give RAD students in the UK's South East region the chance to participate in an open-level ballet class and showcase their classical technique, musicality, and performance skills.

Young dancers have the opportunity to perform alongside their peers in a fun, non-syllabus masterclass that seeks to further inspire them on their dance journey and acknowledge their dedication.

Those students who go on to compete in the final can win a prize of up to £200 to support their ongoing dance training, with further prizes for the runners-up from each class/level.

The Awards take place in two parts;

1. Firstly, students must take part in a county heat where they will be adjudicated based on the judging criteria set out (see page 4). Students must be entered in the county where they attend classes. E.g. If a student lives in Hampshire but attends classes in Surrey, they must be entered in Surrey.
2. Finalists will be selected from each class at each county heat to attend the final where a winner from each class will be decided.

The final will be held on Sunday 10 May in the Aud Jebsen Studio Theatre, at the RAD's global headquarters in London. There will be four classes at different levels, and one winner and two runners-up will be selected from each class.

All net proceeds, after expenses and awards are reinvested in the restricted funds for the Royal Academy of Dance South East.
